Wild About San Juan Island

An excursion to the furthest reaches of Washington state

JOHN GOTTBERG
ANDERSON

Not surprisingly, most of San Juan Island's better restaurants are in Friday Harbor. Jason Aldous, formerly at outstanding restaurants on Camano and Lummi islands, is now practicing his culinary magic as executive chef of the Friday Harbor House, overlooking the harbor. Smoked antelope ribeye with bourbon-quince puree and chanterelle mushrooms was offered as a special on the night of our visit.
